

HOME » NATIONAL

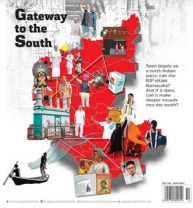

NCST Chairman Reviews Implementation Of Welfare Schemes For STs In Rajasthan

Harsh Chouhan, chairman of the National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST), met with Rajasthan chief secretary Usha Sharma on Thursday to review the state's implementation of ST welfare schemes.

Outlook

NEWS

Latest Issue

The Lingayat Paradox

Lingayat Vote Bank War Intensifies In Karnataka Ahead Of Elections

Continued support of Lingayats is critical for the incumbent BJP to retain power in the Karnata...

ANISHA REDDY

Opinion

Jaati, Hindu, Hindutva: An Experiment In Social Coalitions In Karnataka

How economic rivalries and interdependence shape Hindutva politics in coastal...

MUZAFFAR ASSADI

Coastal Karnataka

Can The BJP Hold On To Its Citadel In Coastal Karnataka?

The experiences of coastal Karnataka suggest that even the announcement of an election...

SHAHINA K. K.

National Commission for Scheduled Tribes (NCST) chairman Harsh Chouhan on Thursday met Rajasthan chief secretary Usha Sharma to review the implementation of schemes and programmes for the welfare of STs there.

Other senior officers of the state government were also present in the meeting. according to a release from the commission.

"Work is done for the scheduled tribes was reviewed. Status of education, health and nutrition, land allocation, use of central assistance for tribal sub-plan, cases of atrocities on scheduled tribes were also reviewed during the meeting," it said.

Chouhan and NCST member Ananta Nayak was in Rajasthan on a three-day visit that began on March 21.

Nayak visited Sirohi on Wednesday and held a meeting with the collector and other officers there to review the implementation of various schemes for STs.

Ground Beef & Potato Casserole

TAGS NATIONAL HARSH CHOUHAN NCST WELFARE SCHEMES RAJASTHAN USHA SHARMA ANANTA NAYAK