The petitioner stated that their land was acquired for the Nagarjuna Sagar Project and they were subsequently allotted pattas under a rehabilitation scheme, and have been cultivating the said land for the past 23 years. It is informed that they have been cultivating the land given under rehabilitation package for the last 22 years from 1991-2011 and after the Court orders, out of 48 PDFs only 31 were given the land and the remaining were left out. The House pattas were also assured but out of the total extent of 5 acres assured it is now confined to 3 acres and 2 acres is taken back. Further it is alleged that among 31 members, 7 are not the original PDFs and only 24 are genuine.

5. The authority has informed that after the ceiling of the surplus land, PDFs were formed into Joint society and 348 acres of land is allocated to them. However as the High court order is issued in favour of the original owners, 31 eligible members were allocated at another place and others are given the DKT Pattas.
